32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Once at an evening Mass as a poor college student, the collection basket was fast approaching, and I only had a ten-dollar bill. I was planning on using that to buy my favorite Chipotle burrito that night for dinner. Should I keep the money? Who would know if I did? If I gave it away, what would I eat? Would I be okay? I kissed my future burrito goodbye, dropped the money in the basket, and winced. But strangely, the rest of the Mass I felt more engaged than usual. I had skin in the game. I left the Mass excited to see how God would take care of me. And he did, in amazing ways.

When the poor widow places two copper coins in the temple treasury, Jesus doesn't pity her. He praises her. He blesses her. He brags about her. He celebrates her as the temple's largest benefactor. Her giving is an act of radical, concrete trust in God. It is as if she is entering a new level of giving that excites Jesus, because she contributes not out of her abundance, but she gives "everything she had."

What a challenge this is to each one of us! How easy it is to ignore this! But imagine the eruption of the energy of faith, hope, and love that would be unlocked if our financial sacrifices to the Church actually tapped into daily bread and not only our disposable income. I challenge us to try this in some way this coming week and see what happens in our hearts. Even if it costs us a burrito.

— Father John Muir

Dear Parishioners,

The date for my surgery is fast approaching! I have undergone pre-operation testing and will have my final medical clearance on Tuesday. Finally, the surgery will take place on November 22nd.

I want to assure you that provisions have been made to cover my period of recovery. I don't know how long it will take before I'm able to resume my duties, but I have planned on the safe side and have arranged Mass coverage for three weekends and Thanksgiving morning. I am grateful to my brother priests who have responded so generously and quickly to my request for coverage. The following will be covering Masses at St. Stanislaus:

Saturday, November 23rd - Fr. Jim Gutting
Sunday, November 24th - Fr. Jim Gutting
Thursday, November 28th - Fr. Shane Mathew
Saturday, November 30th - Msgr. Dan Magraw
Sunday, December 1st - Fr. David Renne
Saturday, December 7th - Fr. Ray Hahn
Sunday, December 8th - Fr. David Renne

Fr. Priscaro will cover my Mass at Our Mother of Sorrows on December 1st. All daily Masses at St. Stan's will be celebrated in private until further notice. Any potential funerals will be arranged on an "as needed" basis. Emergency calls on behalf of those in danger of imminent death can be directed to Fr. Priscaro.

I think that covers all of the bases. I continue to be grateful for your prayers, support, and encouragement. The end of this 3-year saga is finally in sight! Thank you, again, for your ongoing patience.

-Fr. Jason

A PRAYER FOR VETERANS

Heavenly Father, King and Lord, You instill in all of Your creation an order and value. You call Your children "very good." We surrender to You the conflicts that tear your family apart. We pray for an end to blindness that places pride, greed, power, and selfishness above human dignity and brotherly love.

We pray in gratitude for all of those who have defended peace, virtue, and justice with honor. We pray especially for those who have suffered in mind and body from the ravages of war. Let Your Kingdom come! May Your peace that surpasses all understanding reign in our hearts and in our world.

Amen.
