November 15, 2026
Matthew 25:14-30

A friend once took his young adult son to the casino for his birthday. He handed him $100 and said, "Let's have a great time." The son, a graduate student with limited money, quietly pocketed the money and refused to play. "I don't want to lose it," he said. But he missed the point: the money was not really his to pocket; it was his father's invitation to share an experience together.

God sees our gifts a bit like this. In Jesus' parable, a servant buries his master's talent and explains: "Master, I knew you were a demanding person...so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground." The master condemns him not for failure but for refusing to risk. The servant's fear distorts his image of the master and leads to a small, loveless response.

How easily we fall into this trap! We play it safe, avoid risk, and tell ourselves we are wise and God is cruel. But Jesus praises those who trust the Master's goodness enough to act boldly. They are not reckless but confident enough in their Master to risk their gifts for Him.

So, what is my interior story about God right now? Is it marked by generosity, adventure, and trust? Or by fear, caution, and suspicion? That hidden narrative shapes everything. Because love, by its nature, always takes risks with, and for, the beloved.

— Father John Muir

A MESSAGE FROM OUR BISHOP

I write to you clarifying a recent development: the establishment of Corpus Christi Academy, a classical liberal arts school, by private citizens in Erie County. This school was incorporated with the Pennsylvania Department of State as a nonprofit corporation.

There is confusion among some that this is another "Catholic school" opening in Erie. I want to be very clear; this is not a Catholic school. Catholic school status is ecclesiastically regulated, not unilaterally assumed by a private organizer. Canon 803 prohibits a school from bearing the title "Catholic school" without ecclesiastical consent. I have not given that title to Corpus Christi Academy.

The organizer was informed of my decision....

With every best wish, I remain Sincerely yours in Christ, Bishop Lawrence T. Persico, JCL Bishop of Erie

POLISH AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

The Blasco Memorial Library is hosting an exhibit entitled "Polish Heroes and a Vestige of a Polish Home," curated by Bobby Sulecki. The exhibit is located on the second floor in the display window next to the Heritage Room and includes portraits, sheet music, a history of the first Polish radio shows. The exhibit will be on display through December. Celebrate Polish American Heritage during this 250th birthday of America!
